Divi's stock may underperform on valuation, growth concerns

Q1 revenue of contract research & manufacturing services firm down 21%

RAM PRASAD SAHU
Mumbai, 18 August

The stock of pharma major Divi's Laboratories is down over 6.6 per cent over the last eight trading sessions. Given the sales miss in the June quarter and valuations that factor in earnings upsides over the next couple of years, the stock could remain under pressure in the near term.

Revenue of the contract research and manufacturing services player was down 21 per cent year-on-year (Y-o-Y). This is a fourth consecutive quarter of revenue decline due to a high base on account of a surge in Covid-related drugs in previous periods.

Sales in the quarter, at ₹1,778 crore, were muted too, falling short of Street estimates by 10-14 per cent.

Even accounting for the higher base on account of Covid drug Molnupiravir, growth in sales was limited to 1.5 per cent Y-o-Y. In the custom synthesis and manufacturing (CSM) segment, which had a high base and reported a 40 per cent Y-o-Y fall, the growth adjusted for Molnupiravir came in at just 3 per cent.

Highlighting the sales trend, Kunal Randeria and Aashita Jain of Nuvama Research said that Divi's had reached the optimum market share in several of its legacy molecules (naproxen, gabapentin), resulting in muted growth.

While new molecules are a work-in-progress, replicating the success of legacy molecules remains to be seen, they added. Among the growth drivers are sartans which have witnessed pricing pressure. Contrast media, which has better pricing and high entry barriers, remains untested, says the brokerage. Due to these concerns, the brokerage has cut its earnings estimates by 3-6 per cent for FY24/FY25 and downgraded the stock.

Weak sales print in the June quarter led to the disappointment on the operating profit and margin fronts.

Operating profit at ₹504 crore was down 40 per cent Y-o-Y and was 10-18 per cent lower than estimates of some brokerages. While gross margins over the year ago quarter fell by 270 basis points, operating profit margins dipped 920 basis points. On a sequential basis, margins saw a 310-370 basis points recovery on the back of falling input costs and lower expenses.

Going ahead, Kotak Institutional Research pegs a 17 per cent annual sales growth FY2023-26 adjusted for Molnupiravir riding on multiple opportunities. Within the two key segments, they expect the generic active pharmaceutical ingredient (API) business to grow annually at 14 per cent led by the 10 molecules going off patent over CY2023-25 as also the opportunities in contrast media and sartan categories. Generic APIs account for 60 per cent of Divi's sales while custom synthesis accounts for the rest.

The brokerage has estimated a 21 per cent annual growth for the CSM segment for FY23-26 period aided by the upcoming phase 2/3 opportunities, including the fast-track projects and peptides.

The company indicated that lower raw material prices and commencement of contracts would improve revenues and margins. However, Prabhudas Lilladher Research believes that recovery will be gradual and near term growth is likely to remain muted. The brokerage has cut the earnings per share estimates by 3-8 per cent for FY24/FY25 and have downgraded the stock to reduce from hold rating.

Kotak Research too, has cut its earnings, estimates over the next two years by 3-4 per cent to factor in slower growth across segments.

Safeguard against massive vet bills with pet insurance

Understand waiting periods for pre-existing diseases and the co-pay requirement before buying this policy

BINDISHA SARANG

If you've added a dog or a cat to your family, the thought of buying pet insurance must have surely crossed your mind, especially after receiving a bill from your vet. Bajaj Allianz General Insurance recently introduced a pet insurance policy for cats, to supplement the cover for dogs it had launched earlier. Go Digit General Insurance has also announced a partnership with Vetina to offer comprehensive cover for dogs. As pet ownership rises and healthcare for pets become more expensive, interest in pet insurance to mitigate veterinary and other expenses is expected to rise.

Cover for furry friends

Pet insurance policies typically cover dogs and cats, but can also include horses, rabbits, and other animals. Says Kapil Mehta, co-founder and chief executive officer, (CEO), SecureNow: "Pet insurance, like human insurance, covers hospitalisation costs. It also covers the pre and post-hospitalisation costs linked to the ailment the pet suffers from."

High healthcare costs

Pets have shorter lives than humans and are susceptible to many ailments and accidents. Says T A Ramalingam, chief technical officer, Bajaj Allianz General Insurance: "In case of illness, veterinary hospital expenses can run quite high. Pets can also get injured in accidents, resulting in unexpected medical costs." Adds Mehta: "Since there are only a few good veterinary hospitals, they tend to be expensive. That is where pet insurance comes in handy. Treating an illness or accident can easily cost ₹10,000-30,000." A policy allows pet owners to handle such situations without undue financial strain.

What's available?

Besides hospitalisation, this policy also offers coverage for mortality, surgery, theft, and loss or straying. Says Naval Goel, founder and chief executive officer (CEO), PolicyX: "Pet insurance also helps when the pet dies or damages someone's property." Death due to accident or disease, terminal and long-term illness, and outpatient department (OPD) visits are also covered. Customers can choose coverage according to their preferences. "The policy can be purchased for one month to three years. Customers can receive a multiple-pet discount by getting multiple pets covered under a single policy," says Ramalingam. Adds Goel: "On average these policies come with a tenure of seven weeks to eight years and a sum insured of ₹30,000-50,000."

Some policies offer a higher sum insured. The recent offering from GoDigit, for instance, offers a sum insured ranging from ₹40,000 to ₹1.5 lakh, and coverage for 12 weeks to 10 years. Bajaj Allianz, Future Generali, New India Assurance, and GoDigit offer this cover. Says Mehta: "This cover has not taken off due to limited awareness."

Note the exclusions

This policy covers visits to the vet up to the sum insured. While both basic and specialised treatments are covered, cosmetic procedures, congenital health issues, spa visits and grooming are excluded. Says Mehta: "Some insurers exclude pre-existing conditions for 12 months, others offer immediate coverage. Most insurers have a 10 per cent co-pay, which means you have to bear 10 per cent of the total cost out of your pocket."

Some covers are conditional. In Oriental Insurance's dog insurance policy, for instance, partial and permanent disability of any nature, rabies, canine distemper, and leptospirosis are covered if preventive inoculation is done and a certificate to that effect is submitted.

Get covered

Owning a pet, depending on its age and breed, can be costly. Annual routine healthcare expenses, such as deworm-

ESSENTIAL DOCUMENTS FOR SUBMITTING A CLAIM

- Duly completed claim form
- Medical papers and bills from the vet
- Vaccination certificates
- For mortality benefit, death certificate along with coloured photographs of the deceased pet
- For claim related to theft or straying cover, copy of police general diary entry
- For claim under third-party liability cover, police first information report along with court order
- For hospitalisation claim, submit hospital bills
- To make a claim for critical or terminal illness, copy of diagnostic reports

Note: List is non-exhaustive ing, tick treatment, and minor sicknesses, as well as vaccinations, can dig a hole in the pocket. Treatment of major illnesses such as cancer or heart disease can cost anywhere from a few thousand to several lakh.

Insurance, on the other hand, costs only a few hundred to a few thousand. Says Goel: "You can get a cover of ₹50,000 for a two-year Labrador by paying a premium of ₹400-500 per year."The premium depends on the pedigree, age, breed, sum insured, and the plan.

Says Goel: "Having a pet is a life-altering experience but it comes with a lot of responsibility. It is similar to adopting a baby. Buying an insurance policy will help both you and the pet in the long run."
